Jennie Moench : Flint Project Vol. 2 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Flint Project Vol. 2:

The Flint Project series books are her reaction to her home town's reputation of violence. In these books she strides to highlight Flint's arts community and shed light on the reality of the 'Flint personality,' and what people do in Flint. Hopefully, the reader will get a better idea of the real Flint, as well as appreciate the full color art and poetry inside the covers.

About the Author Jennie Moench was born in Flint, Michigan and has written three novels: Bones, Native Spirits, Marilyn, and Leigh Paul. She has also written two other nonfiction works about the arts community in Flint, Michigan: Flint Project and Flint Project Vol. 2. She is the president of Warrior Publications, Inc., which sells books and music by local artists through its website, WarriorPublicationsInc.com. Warrior also has a YouTube channel called Flint Underground, which also features local artists from the Flint community including a monthly variety show hosted by the author and Nic Custer.
