Richard Bean : In the Club (Oberon Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised In the Club (Oberon Modern Plays):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent satire of the EU and the EUPBy Tom HawkesworthExcellent satire of the EU and the EUP. Unfortunately, it would require more knowledge of European issues, than the patrons of my community theatre group have, here in North America, so I'm not considering it for performance. It was, however, an interesting "read" and it is a well-crafted farce.

Hapless MEP Philip Wardrobe has a busy day ahead of him, balancing his less-than-irreproachable political career with his attempts to start a family. As he prepares for his girlfriend to fly in from Kettering for an afternoon of fertile frolics, his plan to be voted President of the European Parliament is foiled at every turn by unpredictable colleagues: uncouth Yorkshiremen, irate Turks and amorous Frenchwomenhellip; to say nothing of the mysterious man in the linen cupboard.In the Club opened at the Hampstead Theatre in July 2007.
