It is nice to know what inspires the inspired. She is such a crazy down to earth person and is super fun to listen to when she gives talks and signs books. I've re-read this book once already and re-read summers in France about four times. This is how I quantify a good book.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I really like Kathryn Ireland's style and "ready to live in "lookBy Janice HunterI am enjoying this book. This is no exception to her excellent repertoire.By SharonCan't wait for her next book - I'm up to date. Adored her on Million Dollar Decorators and return again and again to her inspiring volumes. This is no exception to her excellent repertoire.

Kathryn M. Ireland shows journeys she has taken and the places and people that inspire her creativity, from rural England to Southwest France, from the East Coast U.S. to the West Coast. Mixing textiles and fabrics with furnishings gathered on trips to Morocco, France, London and other international destinations, Kathryn creates sophisticated but welcoming room designs in the States and abroad, from city apartments to ranch homes and French farm houses. Kathryn M. Ireland is a celebrity designer and cast member of Bravo TV's Million Dollar Decorator. Named by Elle Decor in 2012 as one of the top 25 design stars in the U.S., Kathryn enjoys an international reputation for her expertise in the "sympathetic restoration" of older properties with important architectural origins. A well-established fabric designer, Kathryn has designed a collection for the venerable fabric house Scalamandre. She is the author of four previous books, including Timeless Interiors and Summers in France. She lives in Santa Monica, California, and has a farmhouse in Southwest France

About the Author Kathryn M. Ireland is among House Garden's "10 to Watch" architects and designers expected to influence 21st-century style. For the last decade, House Beautiful has named her one of the top 100 designers in the United States. She is the author of Creating a Home and Classic Country. She divides her time between Santa Monica, California, and Montauban, France.
