The songs are good, a bit more advanced than what I was ready for. I did learn the Joe Pass tune. All the others were a bit too fast for me, but I'm still plugging away.

This book has a nice set of jazz guitar classics that will keep you busy for hours. Standard guitar notation and tab is included. I specifically wanted to learn to play Barney Kessel's "On a Slow Boat to China" as it appears on the 1954 Barney Kessel album, Kessel Plays Standards. The transcription is dead on and I am happily soloing to my heart's content. The CD play-along backing band is fun to jam with. Well worth the money.

This is what the other books ought to be. Eight great songs. Eight great transcriptions. Spend the time with this book and you'll learn some tasty tunes!
