Mark Seliger : The Kander Ebb Collection Songbook (Transcribed Scores) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Kander Ebb Collection Songbook (Transcribed Scores):

These are really good arrangements, true to the original scores By JCG There are a lot of simplified piano accompaniments out there for some of these songs. In some cases, they mess with the key changes to make it easier for the piano and harder for the singer. This book does not do that. All these great songs, sung as you hear them on stage! One note: the Kindle version is low-resolution scanned page images. Usable but a bit blurry. I returned it and bought the hardcopy book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. ... though there are a couple of songs I would like to have seen included that weren't By G. Schneider I'm giving this collection a full five stars even though there are a couple of songs I would like to have seen included that weren't. But hey...it's an amazing collection as it is, and you can't please everyone. This is a team that has given us show after show of memorable music. Some shows barely squeaked by with one or two attractive numbers, but others -- like CABARET and CHICAGO -- are brimming with gems, often with nary a dud in sight. Many thanks to Hal Leonard for putting out this collection!4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Bravo Kander EbbBy CustomerIt is so sad to know that Fred Ebb will never write another lyric. This collection of so many incredible songs from this wonderful duo is a great resource. It's fabulous to have all these songs in one place. Truly a dynamic team of beautiful, touching, often hilarious musical writing. These songs are written with the singer in mind and, while often challenging, are always vocal. They also demand acting skills - something too often missing from contemporary composers. Bravo!

(P/V/G Composer Collection). Piano/vocal arrangements of 40 songs from the songwriting team that brought us such classics as "And All That Jazz," "Cabaret," and "New York, New York." Also includes: Coffee (In a Cardboard Cup) * Don't Tell Mama * How Lucky Can You Get * I Move On * Kiss of the Spider Woman * Mister Cellophane * A Tough Act to Follow * Willkommen * and more. This special Collector's Edition also includes a profile of Kander Ebb, complete production credits, and an essay by Fred Ebb written just before his untimely death.
