These are well written with sometimes challenging accompaniments since Hayes is a fine pianist himself By KJW Mark Hayes is an effective and creative arranger/composer. These are well written with sometimes challenging accompaniments since Hayes is a fine pianist himself! These solos are useful for performance or as literature for teaching 6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. Great Arrangements! By M. Harris Mark Hayes has created some wonderful arrangements for these spirituals. Very tasteful -- not cheesy like some arrangements can be. The piano parts are often rich and jazzy. As a bass with a good baritone high end, I have no trouble singing in the range that these have been set. Make sure to get the book with CD. The CD has just the piano accompaniment -- perfect. I bought this book along with Mark Hayes' "7 Songs and Spiritual Songs". The other book is good, but with more of a show tune sound. I prefer this book. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Perfect for me By Mark Madison I highly recommend these Mark Hayes arrangements for spirituals. I have the medium low voice but they come in a high voice version as well. Hayes' arrangements are modern while staying true to the originals producing a simple but beautiful interpretation of these favorites. There's something for every singer here.

Award-winning composer, arranger, pianist and recording artist Mark Hayes has crafted a superb anthology of ten traditional spirituals for vocal soloist with piano accompaniment in true art-song style, ideal for school or church singers. Titles: * Deep River* Go, Tell it on the Mountain* Steal Away to Heaven* I Feel the Spirit Moving* There is a Balm in Gilead* Behold the Star!* My Lord, What a Morning* The Gospel of Grace* Give Me Jesus* Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho
