Outstandingly good reading! By Josh1982. My dear friend Zora Von Burden is a very talented author; these two books, "Women of the Underground: Music" "Women of the Underground: Art" (Cultural Innovators Speak for Themselves) are both extremely good books giving you insight to some of the world's most important and groundbreaking female musicians and artists; some of whom you might have never heard of, but left a forever-lasting mark on the musical and artistic views of today, a unique feminine perspective and influence that continues to breathe new life into the world around us. Two really great additions to anyone's personal library or a fantastic read and in-depth look at the feminine side of art and music. If you are interested, please purchase one or both of these awesome books on .com!!!! A great way to start a new year, with a new book and new knowledge!

It is not about provocation, reaction or even invocation, it is about transformation: mentally and physically. — Marina Abramovic, artist. Art is subjective, and if one sees something in an image, that projection is a reflection of the spectator, who sees what he or she wants to see, whose critique is relevant to him or herself, exposing his or her own perversions. — Irina Ionesco, artist. Until the late twentieth century, women's creative skills were relegated to craft and decorative arts, and valued only for utilitarian purposes in service to others and the manufacturing of products to benefit society. After enduring the great injustice of being denied the freedom that self-expression brings through art for the joy of the human spirit, Women of the Underground: Art celebrates those female cultural innovators who are creating new artwork that pushes boundaries, dares to question, and redefines the genres of mixed media; theater; film; photography; and visual, conceptual, and performance art. In this groundbreaking anthology that will inspire artists and everyone interested in alternatives to mainstream culture, as well as serve as a reference book for art historians, twenty-six female artists describe their ideas, beginnings, influences, and creative techniques. Contains interviews with Lady Pink, Marina Abramovic, Orlan, Aleksandra Mir, Penny Arcade, Johanna Went, the Guerrilla Girls, and many others.
